

Cellular Respiration (Pgs 48-49)

Energy is stored in the _____ we eat. Cells need this energy. _____, a small jelly-bean shaped organelle, helps release the energy in food. Cellular respiration is similar to burning fuel. The chemical reaction can be written as,

Cellular respiration takes place in the _____

The diagram below shows the food/nutrients going in the _____. It also shows the energy and waste products leaving the mitochondria.

